Trial analysis
The typical fragrances of a meaty Tempranillo. Ribera del Duero at its best. Cherry red colour, ripe black fruit, spices and a hint of smokiness on the palate. A juicy, exuberant wine but with a nice acidity. The wood is very well-integrated wood.

Description domain

Téofilo Reyes is the living memory of the Ribera del Duero; he is the man who shaped this denomination. His wines combine a velvety feel, crispy fruit and a long ageing potential. Unique in the region. Téofilo died in 2016 and the estate was bought by a Rioja wine family.
