La Bruja de Rozas 2018
Comando G - 75 cl.

This entry level wine of the Comando G is a reference to an old Spanish TV character, la Bruja Averia (the injured witch). Each carton contains 6 different labels with famous rock stars from the 60-80s disguised as witches. And inside the bottles is a very refined Grenache wine, as usual with the Comando G.

Vinification
Non-interventionist winemaking. Low yields (the soils are mostly poor granite on Sierra de Gredos). The grapes are not de-stemmed before maceration and fermentation. The wine is aged in barrels and vats (not new). So the elegance of Grenache is paramount.

Storage potential
Until 2025

To serve
At cellar temperature.

Trial analysis
Nice ruby colour. A lot of red fruit on the nose, with hints of Asian spices (green curry). Fresh but powerful on the palate, quite complex too. A juicy wine for real wine-lovers.

Assembly
Garnacha (100%)

Region:
Madrid

Appellation:
D.O. Vinos de Madrid
