Las Iruelas 2022
Comando G - 75 cl.

Las Iruelas is one of Daniel Landi's "grands crus". It is located in the village of El Tiemblo, in the Province of Avila. In contrast with the other crus where the soil is made of granite, the vines of Las Iruelas grow on slate, facing East, at some 1000 m above sea-level. An outstanding wine.

Vinification
Everything is done according to Daniel Landi's recipe: biodynamics, non-interventionism; the grapes are non des-stemmed, they macerate and ferment whole with indigenous yeasts. As little SO2 as possible is added. All this, so as to obtain a pure and elegant wine. The ageing takes place in big vats and old French oak barrels.

Storage potential
Drink as from : 2024
Best moment : 2028 en 2030
Until : 2037

To serve
Serve at cellar temperature. Best decant before pouring in a large glass.

Trial analysis
Pale ruby colour with clear reflections, almost transparent. Red fruit, berries and garrigue spices on the nose. Both elegant and powerful on the palate, juicy tannins, a nice structure. A great Grenache, indeed.
