El Barredo 2016
Rodrigo Méndez - 75 cl.

The grapes of this vine used to make Spain's best Pinot Noir (La Tentation de Raul Pérez); now in the hands ofRodri Méndez of Goliardo, it is now blended with some Mencía to produce El Barredo. A must for Burgundy lovers!

Vinification
A usual, maceration and fermentation in whole bunches. As little intervention at the cellar as possible. Ageing in large wooden vats.

Storage potential
5 to 10 years.

To serve
In a large glass. Burgundy type, of course!

Trial analysis
Elegance first!

Description domain

Rodrigo Méndez, often called Rodri, is the winemaker behind Forjas del Salnés in Rías Baixas. Alongside this estate, he also produces a small range of wines under his own name. These are white wines made from old Albariño vines, sourced from different plots and soil types. Production is always very limited.

Assembly
Mencia (60%), Pinot Noir (40%)
