Trial analysis
In the Abel Mendoza range, this Tempranillo is the densest wine. Round, full of fruit, powerful but elegant, this is not a very solar wine, but it shows a long, delicately smoky finish.

Description domain

This is one of the smallest estates in Rioja. Abel cares about the vines, and his spouse Maite about the winemaking. A happy combination - this estate is one of the region's hidden jewels. Their whites and reds are equally outstanding. The estate is located in San Vincente de la Sonsierra, in Rioja Alta, on the border with Rioja Alavesa.
