Teófilo Reyes Crianza 2012

Teófilo Reyes - 75 cl.

A meaty, fleshy and powerful Ribera del Duero, typical of low yield grapes (28hl/ha). Téofilo is one of the few oenologists who uses 1 to 2% of the white Albillo grape in the blend.

Vinification
18 months in French and American oak (1/3 new oak).

Storage potential
8 years

To serve
Decant preferably (especially in the first 3 years) and serve at 18°C in a large glass.

Trial analysis
Sweet aromas of chocolate and vanilla make your mouth water. Cranberry and blackberry notes bring liveliness to the nose. Silky-velvety on the palate, even in its young years. Noble soft tannins. A typical, powerful and voluminous Ribera. This very traditional bodega does not go for the temptations of modern techniques and style.

Assembly
Tinto Fino (100%)

Region:
Castilla y León

Appellation:
D.O. Ribera del Duero

Wine estate:
Teófilo Reyes

Description domain

Téofilo Reyes is the living memory of the Ribera del Duero; he is the man who shaped this denomination. His wines combine a velvety feel, crispy fruit and a long ageing potential. Unique in the region. Téofilo died in 2016 and the estate was bought by a Rioja wine family.
