Corullón 2019
Descendientes de J. Palacios - 75 cl.

This top wine is made with grapes from family-owned vineyard in the village of Corullon, at an altitude of 850 m.

Vinification
17 months in French oak barrels, 1/3 of which are new.

Storage potential
Can be drunk as soon as 2023 but will be at its peak between 2027 and 2028. Can be kept until 2038.

To serve
Serve at cellar temperature, in a large bourgogne-glass after decanting.

Trial analysis
On par with the Bourgogne grands crus. Very intense aromas of ripe fruit, sweet spices and flowers. Fresh and crispy on the palate, a meaty mouthfeel and a fruity, bone-dry mentality in the finish. Lovely, juicy and biting tannins, wrapped up in a nice woody envelope.

Description domain

One grape: Mencia. One terroir: El Bierzo. One winemaker: Ricardo Pérez Palacios. The result is outstanding wines that speak of their origin. With Raul Perez, Ricardo realised the importance of his parcels' identity. They were the driving force behind the new regulations in the Bierzo appellation.

Assembly
Mencia (94%), Alicante Bouschet (2%), Godello (2%), Palomino (1%), Valenciana (1%), Gran Negro, Negreda, Pan y Carne
