Maduresa 2011
Celler del Roure - 75 cl.

Maduresa means maturity. The label refers to the perfect ripeness of each berry, a prerequisite for a successful vinification. Mando is a disappearing grape which has been saved thanks toPablo's efforts.

Vinification
12 months in new French oak barrels.

Storage potential
9 years

To serve
18°C

Trial analysis
This is a wine for the lovers of big wines; it shows a lot of generosity, some vinosity, a strong terroir expression, with some meaty and mineral notes. And a lot of freshness underneath.

Assembly
Mandó (30%), Cabernet Sauvignon (20%), Monastrell (20%), Merlot (15%), Petit Verdot (15%)

Region:
Levante

Description domain

Celler del Roure is nothing short of the pioneer of quality wine in the DO Valencia. Until recently, Valencia was only known for its cheap bulk wines, but it is now blossoming into one of Spain most interesting wine regions. Thanks to the estate, which rehabilitated long-forgotten local grapes like the red Mando and the white Verdil, and also rediscovered the use of amphoras.
