Trial analysis
Nice, limpid, golden colour. Mainly Chardonnay on the nose, with spicy notes from the Mediterranean Macabeu. Large, fat but lively on the palate, with a mix of ripe fruit and minerality. The hint of bitterness in the finish is a token of the terroir.

For several years now, they have also been part of the "Grandes Pagos de España" and farm entirely organically. The wines are more Mediterranean than those of the Castel del Remei.
