Jarrarte Joven 2023
Abel Mendoza - 75 cl.

The carbonic maceration method is traditionally used in Rioja. However, these Riojas are hardly comparable to Beaujolais wines, which are lighter and fruitier than Riojas made from Tempranillo grapes.

Vinification
Stainless steel vats, carbonic maceration

Storage potential
Drink as from: 2024
Best moment: 2024-2025
Until: 2026

To serve
Température de cave, dans un verre à Bourgogne

Trial analysis
Intense bright red colour with well-defined meniscus. On the nose, a strong impression of ripe red fruit, such as blackcaurrant and cherry, followed by underlying notes of spice. Fresh and tasty on the palate, with a lovely structure and harmonious tannins. On the palate: fleshy fruit, vinous character and good length.

Description domain

This is one of the smallest estates in Rioja. Abel cares about the vines, and his spouse Maite about the winemaking. A happy combination - this estate is one of the region's hidden jewels. Their whites and reds are equally outstanding. The estate is located in San Vincente de la Sonsierra, in Rioja Alta, on the border with Rioja Alavesa.
