Marqués de Valdueza Rojo 2021
Marqués de Valdueza - 75 cl.

2008 was the first vintage produced. The estate also produces an entry-level wine (Valdueza) and a top cuvée (Etiqueta Azul). This “red label” sits in between. The vineyards are located at 235 to 355 metres altitude, with slopes of up to 12%.

Vinification
Ageing: 6% in stainless steel tanks and 94% in French oak barrels of 225 and 400 litres (45% new oak).

Storage potential
Drink as from: 2025
Best moment: 2026-2029
Until: 2031

To serve
Serve at 18°C in a large glass.

Trial analysis
Deep red with purple reflections. A glass full of sunshine, ripe red berries, a touch of freshly ground pepper and pleasant spice. Broad on the attack, with juicy tannins, a smooth texture and above all a fleshy character. The oak ageing is very well integrated and in balance with the fruit. An easygoing southern wine with grip and class!
