Coma Vella 2018
Mas d'en Gil - 75 cl.

The La Coma valley marks the entrance to Mas d'en Gil and has the shape of a natural amphitheatre. On the lower terraces, grenache dominates, while higher up in the valley, carinyena is planted on various types of slate soils. The blend is composed of 60% grenache, 30% carignan and 10% syrah, the latter coming from a limestone terroir located just beside the Coma Calcari plot. The vineyards in La Coma are on average 40 to 50 years old. Coma means valley; Vella is Catalan for old. A true classic from El Priorat.

Vinification
The grapes are vinified separately in underground concrete tanks. The wine then matures for 12 months in small French oak barriques (30% new) and in large foudres of 1,500 to 3,000 litres, mostly using seasoned oak. A minimum of 24 months of bottle ageing follows after bottling.

Storage potential
Drink as from: 2024
Best moment: 2025-2029
Until: 2031

To serve
Serve at cellar temperature, in a large glass, preferably after decanting, at least during the 5 first years.

Trial analysis
Deep red colour. Complex aromatic pallet of Mediterranean spices, red and black fruit (blackberries, raspberries), and a hint of vanilla, a touch of coffee and cocoa. The fruit stays on the palate, accompanied by nice tannins and some acidity. Very long and mineral finish.

Description domain

One of the largest - and best - estates in Priorat, Mas d'en Gil was saved from decay by the Rovira Family at the end of the 1990's. It is now back at the top with superb wines which both respect the local traditions in terms of viticulture and winemaking.
