Pazo Señorans Selección de Añada 2010

Pazo Señorans - 150 cl. (Magnum)

This cuvée is only produced in great vintages. It is not aged in barrels, but on its lees, in stainless steel tanks, at a low temperature. It is a unique wine from North Western Spain, that is only released after 6 years.

Vinification
Aged in stainless steel tanks, on its lees for 36 months minimum.

Storage potential
Already perfect when it is released on the market, it opens up remarkably after 8 years.

To serve
Serve at 12°C after decanting for a few hours (in its first years).

Trial analysis
One of the most beautiful wine ever produced in the Rias Baixas. A famous wine-lover once described it as the crossing between a Sancerre and a Riesling. A real symbiosis. Its aromas are both refined and complex - floral, fruity, exotic, with a hint of petrol. It is juicy, large and dense on the palate, with a very long finish.

Assembly
Albariño (100%)

Region:
Galicia

Appellation:
D.O. Rias Baixas
