Cantos del Diablo 2022
Vitícola Mentridana - 150 cl. (Magnum)

Cantos del Diablo is a small 0.3 ha parcel located 900 metres above sea level - which makes it the highest of the whole Méntrida appellation. Granite soils, North exposition, 70-year-old vines on average.

Vinification
All the grapes are vinified in whole bunches, so as to obtain a cooler fermentation and a lighter extraction. Daniel only uses indigenous yeasts and old foudres, both for the fermentation and for the ageing. No correction is made during vinification and only a small dose of sulphur is added at bottling.

Storage potential

Trial analysis
Light colour. Floral on the nose (rose petals), but also spicy, with a touch of minerality (flint). Rather slender on the palate, but the refined tannins bring a good backbone. No trace of sweetness here (like in many grenache wines), but a nice minerality and very long finale. This wine deserves to be kept a while in the cellar.

Wine style:
Continental, elegant and mineral

Description domain

Vitícola Mentridana is the successor to Dani Landi Viticultor. Dani, born in Méntrida, followed a similar path as his childhood friend Curro. Both studied oenology and began their careers working in small family-run bodegas. Eventually, they each created their own projects—Comando G for Dani and Fedellos for Curro. Now, their paths have crossed again: Dani decided to bring all his vineyards from the Méntrida appellation under one separate winery, Vitícola Mentridana. Curro now runs the day-to-day operations and makes the wines, always with Dani's support.
