ElBlanc XXV 2014
Albet i Noya - 75 cl.

This wine - one of the first results of the recuperation of old or forsaken varietals in the region - blends Vidal and Viognier. Its first vintage was 2002, for the 25th anniversary of the estate, and it was an immediate success.

Vinification
The Viognier goes into French oak barrels (new), for 2 to 3 months.

Storage potential
7 years.

To serve
Serve cool (12°C) after decanting.

Trial analysis
This wine needs some time to open itself, but with some air, it delivers nice fresh, spicy notes of citrus and herbs, followed by the typic aromas of the Viognier. The wood, very well integrated, stays in the background. Both elegant and complex on the palate, long, full-bodied but refined. A nice touch of bitter minerality in the finish.

Assembly
Viognier (60%), Marina Rion (20%), Vidal (20%)
