Trial analysis
Deep like a Burgundy. A rich bouquet, combining ripe white fruit such as apricot and pear. Galician minerality wrapped in a subtle toasted frame that holds everything together. Immediate on the palate, full, broad and textured, with freshness and a complete structure that reflects the class of a great wine. A level where oak plays a supporting role, allowing for a truly three-dimensional wine experience. Long finish with a mineral character.

Description domain

A modest man, José Luis Mateo is yet considered by many as the only real good winemaker in the Monterrei appellation, and even the best of all Galicia. He doesn't care about the accolades and scores he gets in the international wine press, working according to what he sees in his vines.
