Pingus PRIMEUR 2026

Dominio de Pingus - 600 cl. (Imperial)

Primeur sales: delivery scheduled for January 2029. Pingus is a cult wine produced in very limited quantities by one of Sapin's most famous oenologist, the Dane Pter Sisseck. The production varies from 6,000 to 7,000 bottles according to the year.

Vinification
Vat fermented. 12 months in French oak barrels (2nd year). Biodynamic viticulture.

Storage potential
Drink as from: 2033
Best moment: 2038-2042
Until: 2047

To serve
Serve at 18°C in a large glass, after decanting for several hours.

Trial analysis
Very dark colour. Complex on the nose, but still quite closed; after some air has been given, it reveals a huge mass of fruity notes (cherries, gooseberries), as well as leather and vanilla notes. On the palate, it shows a nice tannic structure, some wood notes but a lot of juiciness. In spite of its identity, this is a complex and refined wine.
