Abel Mendoza Viura 2025

Abel Mendoza - 75 cl.

Viura is another name for Macabeo. At Abel Mendoza, this 100% Viura comes from old vines scattered across different plots, often planted among other traditional grape varieties. The vines are around 40 years old on average and grow on clay and limestone soils. At Abel Mendoza, Viura is often the most austere and taut of his single-varietal white wines. Production of 3,300 bottles.

Vinification
Manual harvest. Fermentation is started with a pied de cuve, made from yeasts originating from the estate's own vineyards. Fermentation takes place in French oak barrels. The wine is then aged for 5 months on fine lees in new French barriques.

Storage potential
Drink as from: 2026
Best moment: 2028-2031
Until: 2035

To serve
Not to cold (12°C) in a Bourgogne glass.

Trial analysis
Nice golden colour. Ripe white fruit aromas, with delicate wood notes. Straight and powerful on the palate,with a long mineral finish. A rather complex and harmonious wine, rich but elegant

Description domain

This is one of the smallest estates in Rioja. Abel cares about the vines, and his spouse Maite about the winemaking. A happy combination - this estate is one of the region's hidden jewels. Their whites and reds are equally outstanding. The estate is located in San Vincente de la Sonsierra, in Rioja Alta, on the border with Rioja Alavesa.
