Pétalos 2023
Descendientes de J. Palacios - 75 cl.

Entry-level wine from this house. Honest, tasty and super-fruity. Pétalos = flower petals. Mainly from vineyards in and around Corullón. Mainly Mencía, but also quite a few unknown white and red grape varieties from the region due to the use of vieilles vignes. In 2021, it was named the best red wine in the world for value for money by Wine Spectator.

10 months in French oak barrels.

Storage potential

Trial analysis
Intensely coloured wine with a bouquet of violets, lavender and blueberries. On the palate, it is rich and supple and very fruit-driven with a continental backbone. The noble tannins make for a complete wine that is quite good value for money. Beneath all this feast of juicy red continental fruit, we find a nicely bound freshness. The barrel ageing is secondary and does not show up in the flavour structure.
