Leirana, O Pradiño 2022
Forjas del Salnés - 75 cl.

O Pradiño is named after the parcel from which the wine originates, in O Vinquiño (Sanxenxo). The vineyard was completely replanted in 2012 using cuttings from some of the more than century-old vines that were still present on this site. The vineyard lies very close to the sea and consists of decomposed granite and sand soils, with gneiss. In total, there are 1,600 vines, with an annual production of around 700 bottles. Our most mineral Albariño!

Vinification
Manual harvest. Fermentation in a 600-litre foudre, using only indigenous yeasts. Aged for 12 months in new oak barrels. No malolactic fermentation.

Storage potential
Drink as from : 2025
Best moment : 2027-2029
Until : 2033

To serve
Serve chilled.

Trial analysis
Our most precise and tightly structured Albariño. Citrus and minerality on the nose and palate. A firm, focused attack with well-integrated oak. Reminiscent of the classic Albariños of the past. Very long finish with vibrant, incisive acidity.

Description domain

This is one of the smallest estates in Rias Baixas, but well known from the connoisseurs. Since 2005, the current generation, with Rodri at the helm, has been making super whites but also great reds with a typical Atlantic and Galician accent. Organic cultivation and vinification, minimal intervention. Definitely not wines for beginners.
